

MEET COMBATANTS FOR PEACE TONIGHT IN ORANGE

To counter the constant barrage of stories denying the possibility of peace between Israelis and Palestinians and the concomitant demonizing of peoples, an Israeli ex-IDF member and a Palestinian ex-militant for Fatah, members of Combatants for Peace, are touring our area.

Combatants for Peace calls for ending the Israeli occupation in order to create a Palestinian state alongside Israel. In the face of frozen ideas and rigid opposition to a peace treaty, it is important to indicate our support of these brave men who refuse to be enemies. (Announcement from Greater New Haven Peace Council)

Come to “The Billboard from Bethlehem” screening and Q&A Discussion with the Combatants For Peace
Sunday, July 17th 6:30 pm (TONIGHT)
Temple Emanuel, 150 Derby Ave., Orange, CT

Rabbi Michael Farbman and Temple Emanuel welcome The Combatants for Peace in a discussion about their work as Peacemakers in Israel and Palestine. After watching an award winning 60-minute documentary, “The Billboard from Bethlehem,” the Combatants for Peace will take questions from the audience about their work as former advocates of violence, and now as grassroots peacemakers in Israel and Palestine.

The Discussion Panel Members:

Temple Emanuel: Rabbi Michael Farbman

From Israel: Erez Krispin

From Palestine: Nouraldin Shedahah

IWage Peace.Org: Bruce Barrett, Film Director

The "Combatants for Peace" movement was started jointly by Palestinians and Israelis who have taken an active part in the cycle of violence; Israelis as soldiers in the Israeli army (IDF) and Palestinians as part of the violent struggle for Palestinian freedom. After brandishing weapons for so many years, and having seen one another only through weapon sights, they have decided to put down their guns, and to fight for peace.
